

HHS Class of 1962

Things for which we are Proud

Do you have additions/corrections/Do you want your name revealed? email me at carolleiby@hotmail.com

- Kids and grandkids are doing well (we must have brought them up well)
- Helped special needs children for 26 years
- Still holds shot-put record at HHS set 50 years ago
- Motor officer, swat team, taught weapons defense
- PhD in Math, worked for various aerospace companies, V.P. Ultrasystems.
- Tutored and mentored mathematics
- Taught math for 30 years
- PhD in anthropology, a college professor in anthropology
- Started a Speedy Oil business, continue to own it but now earn rental money from it
- Rebuilt several cars
- Worked with kids in public schools using handicapped puppets
- Sang in choral group in convalescent homes
- Adopted a daughter
- At age 60 went back to school in massage therapy, now a therapist
- Awarded the Bronze Star – for meritorious service in combat action
- Between the 2 of these people, they were in charge of over half the semi-conductor distribution in the US:
  - Director worldwide distribution of Toshiba semiconductors
  - Director North America distribution of Hitachi semiconductors
- Hallmark store manager
- Actively supported children's cancer research through walks, fund raisers, etc – lost her son at 6 years old to cancer
- Head of 3 different women's organizations: American Women's Association in Malaysia; San Juan Hills Gold Association; Assistance League in Laguna Beach
- National Customer Service Manager of Allergan Pharmaceuticals
- Managing Editor of the Trade Journal for the International Customer Service Association
- Volunteers with the Red Cross. Works in administration and goes to aid in disaster areas. This summer went to aid in Colorado and Washington after extensive fires.
- Financial Controller Intercraft Industries – largest frame and wall décor company in the US
- Mary Kaye sales director for 8 years
- PhD in higher education, taught nursing
- Executive Director San Fernando Valley for Youth Build for students 16-24 that did not graduate
- Executive VP No Child Left Behind tutoring program
- Corporate Director Pacific Health Corporation, over 5 hospitals
- Apparel Industry - National Sales Manager , Executive VP, Consultant
- Texas school district secretary
- Returned to school to get a degree in Medical Transcription
- Plumbing contractor – designed plumbing used in all kidney dialysis centers in southern California
- Co-moderator for Disciples of Christ denomination for Arizona, Nevada, Hawaii and Southern California
- Created and maintains Cougartown with now over 8000 subscribers.
- Worked on the Space Shuttle, worked with the astronauts
- Started a software company that was acquired by Microsoft